TEMPLATE 3

Angry Customer Response

A calm macro for frustrated users without overpromising.

Hi [Customer Name],

I'm sorry for the frustration this has caused. I understand this is important to you, and I'll do my best to help move this forward.

To review this properly, I need to check a few details first. Please send [required information], and I'll use that to investigate the issue and guide you on the next step.

Thank you for your patience while we work on this.

Best,
Surafel

TEMPLATE 4

Follow-Up After No Customer Response

A professional follow-up before pausing or closing a case.

Hi [Customer Name],

I wanted to follow up on your previous request. We are still waiting for [required information] so we can continue reviewing the issue.

If the issue is already resolved, no further action is needed. If you still need help, please reply with the requested details and I'll continue from there.

Best,
Surafel
